The speaker was Mr. Anindya Chowdhury, Founder & Director, Prep Junction, Alumni - IIM Rohtak.

Anindya shared his journey of being a student to a Start-Up Founder in this session of 1 hours. He mentioned how the idea was developed in his mind during his IIM Days and then all the steps he had undergone to convert it into a successful StartUp. He also shared the detailed statistics of the Startup he is managing.

Total of 45 participants from different Departments had attended this webinar. The speaker shared his experience and enlightened the students of B.Tech and Diploma about the requirements for a successful start-up, the ideas behind a successful startup, etc. The session was very motivating and all the participants thoroughly enjoyed and also interacted with the speaker throughout the session. The snapshots along with the other highlights were shared in the Facebook Page through the link:
